

Wine Specials - Introducing Land of the Vines

One of our favourite winemakers is Kurt Brill from Land of the Vines. Over the past few years he has continued to impress us with the quality of his wines so we would love you to try them.

Made in very small quantities in McLaren Vale and Adelaide Hills, this is seriously good stuff at amazing prices. The style is understated and elegant, a reflection perhaps of Kurt's experience in French vintages - if you don't drink them we will!

2017 Chardonnay (Adelaide Hills)

glass $10 bottle $45

Peach, melon, spiced guava on the nose, mango & nectarine on the palate with a creamy finish to balance the wine.

2017 Cabernet Franc (McLaren Vale)

glass $10 bottle $45

Aromas of violets, rose petals and tobacco on the nose, a hint of spice on the palate but silky smooth tannins

2017 Shiraz (McLaren Vale)

glass $10 bottle $45

A very refined shiraz with lots of chocolate & mocha undertones, a touch of liquorice and a beautiful long finish
